Students and youth are the biggest voting block in this election. Be bold at the polls.

AM I ELIGIBLE TO VOTE?

To be eligible you must:

Be a Canadian Citizen.

Be at least 18 years old on election day, October 21.

Prove your identity and address.

WHAT ID DO I NEED?

You have three options:

Show any one of: driver's license, or any other card issued by a Canadian government (federal, provincial/territorial, or local) with your photo, name, and current address.

Show any two pieces of ID with your name with at least one including your current address (e.g. voter information card, bank statement, student card, ISIC card, utility bill etc.)

Live in residence? Your housing office should be able to provide a written confirmation of address.

No ID? Get someone who can prove their identity and address to vouch for you and declare your identity and address in writing.

For a full list of eligible pieces of ID visit elections.ca.

DO I NEED TO REGISTER TO VOTE FIRST?

No but it's easy to do and makes things simpler and faster at the polling station! You'll also get a personalized voter information card in the mail which will tell you when, where, and how to vote. Just visit elections.ca to register.
